Two Pirates Named To Preseason All-PBC Women's Soccer Squad

Posted: Aug 14, 2013

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University senior midfielder Andye Dawson and sophomore defender Taylor Russell were each named to the 2013 Preseason All-Peach Belt Conference women's soccer squad, released today by league officials.

The duo were two of the 11-player preseason All-Conference squad, voted on by the Peach Belt Conference's head coaches.

Dawson played in all 23 matches last season for the Pirates, earning second-team All-PBC honors as well as third team Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-American honors. The Senoia, Ga., native tallied five goals with three assists, including the game-winner in the Pirates' 1-0 win over then-No. 4 Columbus State on September 15.

Russell, meanwhile, played in 22 matches as a freshman as a central defender for the Pirates, helping Armstrong defensively hold opponents to a 0.72 goals against average. The Marietta, Ga., native earned second-team All-PBC honors as well as All-PBC Tournament honors, scoring a pair of goals on the year.
